

FAMILY SERVICES of the NORTH SHORE

Job Posting - Contract

Position:	Counsellor – Child & Youth Counselling & Prevention (CYCP)
Position #:	17-1170
Reports to:	Program Manager / Clinical Supervisor – CYCP
Location:	North Vancouver Office
Closing:	Until Filled

The Agency:

Family Services of the North Shore is an accredited, not-for-profit, community based organization which serves the City and District of North Vancouver, the District of West Vancouver, Lions Bay and Bowen Island. Family Services of the North Shore also provides provincial wide programming in the prevention of eating disorders.

The Program:

Our Child and Youth Counselling Program (CYCP) provides clinical counselling services on a fee-for-service basis for children and youth experiencing difficulties in their lives such as depression, anxiety, parental divorce, school stress, relationship issues, and trauma.

The Job:

This is a contract position where you will work no more than 10 hours per week. You must have availability on Saturdays as well as have some flexibility during the week (afternoons & evenings).

You will work in our Child & Youth Counselling and Prevention program providing clinical counselling services on a fee-for-service basis for children and youth experiencing difficulties in their lives.

The Candidate:

You have a Master's degree in clinical counseling, or social work, or a related field, as well as current RCC, AAMFT, RSW, or CCC registration as well as at least one year of experience providing counselling to children and / or youth. Specialized training in trauma, play therapy & expressive arts therapies would be considered an asset as would training and experience in working with LGBTQ2S children & youth. You must also demonstrate an understanding of how the therapeutic relationship is affected by diversity issues.

Language proficiency in Farsi, Korean, Mandarin or Cantonese is considered a significant asset as is experience working with First Nations people.
