

FAMILY SERVICES of the NORTH SHORE Job Posting

Position:	Counsellor– Community Counselling (Family Preservation)
Position #:	18-1183
Reports to:	Program Manager / Clinical Supervisor – Community Counselling
Location:	North Vancouver office and Community
Closing:	May 5, 2018

The Agency:

Family Services of the North Shore is an accredited, not-for-profit, community based agency committed to making a lasting and deep impact on our community through counselling, support, education and volunteer programs.

As a valued member of the staff, you will have the opportunity to work for an organization that respects its employees, values work / life balance and provides a workplace where interactions are carried out in a spirit of collaboration, cooperation and communication.

The Program:

The Family Preservation Program provides intensive counselling to MCFD mandated clients with child protection concerns who have lost custody or may be in danger of losing custody of their children. Services are provided in the clients' homes and in the community.

The Job:

This is a full-time (1.0 FTE) position on our Family Preservation team.

Working with the Ministry, you will determine counselling goals and objectives for the various family members and work with them individually or in groups as appropriate. You will provide initial and on-going assessments as well as work with client families regarding issues of family boundaries, improving parental capacity, improving child behaviors, healing emotional pain, developing problem-solving skills, building resilience, handling separation and loss, resolving guilt and anger, building family and community support networks, etc. You will attend to legal and ethical issues as they may arise and ensure that appropriate action is taken.

This position requires some flexibility in work hours and a capacity to respond to a diversity of client needs. Hours of service must be flexible to accommodate the schedules of families and will include after-school and evening hours. This position also requires the use of a personal automobile and cell phone.

The Candidate:

The successful candidate will have a graduate degree in Counselling Psychology or Social Work or a related field with a minimum of 2 years of experience working in a community setting or a bachelor's degree in social work or other human service field and at least 3 years of post-degree experience working in a community setting.

Experience working with families who are impacted by relationship violence, substance misuse, mental health issues, and poverty is essential. Current registration with an accredited professional organization is also required as well as an understanding of how the therapeutic relationship is impacted by diversity issues. Experience facilitating groups would also be an asset.

Language proficiency in Farsi, Korean, Mandarin or Cantonese is considered a significant asset as would experience working with First Nations people.

Family Services of the North Shore is committed to creating a diverse work force. Persons of diverse cultures and backgrounds are encouraged to apply and, if you so choose, to identify yourself as such.
