

SUE BAUMAN
FSNS, Executive Director

Sue Bauman was appointed Executive Director in June 2006.

Sue has a proven track record working with community-based agencies. Her considerable work over the past decades in community social and legal services is evidenced as a Founding Member of the first transition house in Kelowna, former Domestic Violence Coordinator for North Vancouver and a former Vancouver Police Board member.

From 2001 to May 2006, Sue was Managing Director of the Family Services of the North Shore Foundation. In this role, she was responsible for raising operating funds of over $1 million each year to sustain the programs and services of Family Services of the North Shore.

Sue was a Board Member of Family Services of the North Shore. From 1989-1992, she served as Board President for the agency. Sue was hired by FSNS in 1996 and was Director of Community Programs from 1996 to 2001. In this capacity, Sue played a key role in the implementation of the nationally-recognized Westcoast Energy Children's Centre, past recipient of the Family Services of Canada Leadership Award for "Programming with a National Impact."
