The Agency:

Family Services of the North Shore is an accredited not-for-profit, community-based agency committed to making a deep and lasting impact in our community through counselling, support, education, and volunteer programs.

We understand the competing responsibilities of modern life. In every role, we will support both your commitment to our community and the very real need to take care of your family. We also understand that to take care of others, you must first take care of yourself. At Family Services of the North Shore, you can do both. We aim to provide a sustainable model of work-life balance across all our programs and services.

The Program:

The Stopping the Violence (STV) program delivers counselling services to women who have experienced intimate partner violence, sexual abuse and / or childhood abuse as well as trafficked women. Services are primarily delivered to individual clients but will also include some group work.

The Job:

This is a permanent .3 FTE (10.5 hours per week) position beginning as soon as possible.

You will provide regular, scheduled individual and group clinical supervision to counsellors working in STV program. You will offer insight and suggestions regarding how to address clinical situations. You will provide guidance and support to staff to assist them in providing service to clients. You will review and sign off on clinical supervision reports. You will attend to emerging clinical issues and offer support as needed.

You will provide training and support to counsellors on file documentation practices and ensure that new staff are well versed in documentation requirements and the use of the Nucleus Labs database.

You will attend to critical incidents and ensure that Agency protocols are followed and that counsellors are supported while attending to critical incidents.

You will manage the waitlist for the STV program and assign cases to counsellors as space becomes available.

The Candidate:

The successful candidate will have:

- a graduate degree in Counselling Psychology or Social Work or a related field with a minimum of 4+ years of experience working as a clinical counsellor in a team environment.
- Clinical experience working with children as well as individual adults, couples and families who are facing complex issues including violence, mental health, addictions, grief & loss, and conflict.
- Current registration in a professional organization (BCACC, AAMFT, BCASW)
- Experience as a clinical supervisor or the desire and motivation to learn.

In addition, you have:

- Excellent clinical skills with a focus on trauma.
- Excellent oral, written, facilitation and interpersonal communication skills.
- Good time and general management skills
- Excellent file documentation practices with an understanding of the importance of file documentation as a part of clinical practice.

The ability to provide services in a language in addition to English is an asset.

Family Services of the North Shore is committed to diversity and inclusion within its workforce, and encourages all candidates, irrespective of gender, nationality, religious and ethnic backgrounds, including persons living with disabilities to apply to become part of our organization.
